

BIG QUESTION

Why are Celebrations special?

Building on prior learning

- Talking about key celebrations in our own lives
- Understanding how we celebrate special events

Sticky Words

Celebration, festival, Diwali, Christmas, Remembrance, faith, culture, birthday, belief, tradition

Little Questions

Why do Hindus and Sikhs celebrate Diwali?

How is Diwali celebrated?

Why do we celebrate Bonfire Night and Remembrance Day?

Why do Christians celebrate Christmas?

What do Christmas traditions look like?

Point for critical thinking

What does light mean to you?

Awe, wonder and reciprocity

To participate in a traditional Nativity play

As a historian:

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS - I will know about significant events from my own life and those of others

VOCABULARY:

event, time, in the past, long ago

As an artist:

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS - I will learn to use bright colour in creating a special feeling

VOCABULARY: paint, design, colour, print, create, mix

As a confident person:

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS -

Oracy in Action

Exploratory

Learning to project our voice and develop clarity of speech

Presentational

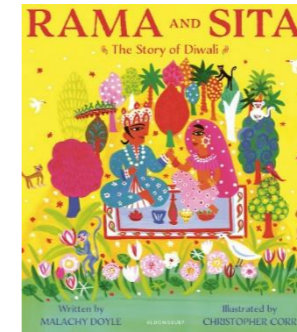

To perform the Nativity to an audience

Sentence stems:

I think that...

We celebrate by...

Key information, facts and events:

The story of Rama and Sita is the reason Hindus and Sikhs celebrate Diwali (The festival of Lights) at the end of Autumn. The triumph of good over evil and the good of good people.

Bonfire night is celebrated on 5th Houses of Parliament long ago.

Remembrance Day is 11th November every year as we think about the people who gave their lives in times of war.

Christmas is celebrated on 25th December as Christians remember the birth of Jesus, the son of God.

As a musician:

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS - To learn, recall and sing lyrics with rhythm and pitch

VOCABULARY: sing, volume, pitch, project, voice